FAQs About Me...

Kelly Carnahan

To me, youth ministry is about helping students discover what faith in Christ is all about. Our goal is to challenge students in their faith and to help to make that faith their own, not their parents faith, not the churches faith and not the youth pastor's faith. Secondly, we want to see students making wise choices based on their faith. We encourage our students to be constantly growing as disciples, in turn, discipling others.
